

Certified Lactation Specialist Course

Scholarship Application

The Northern Indiana Lactation Consultant Association is offering 5 partial scholarships in the amount of $250 for those who want to gain education and expertise in lactation support to benefit moms and babies in the region.

The scholarships can be used for the upcoming course provided through Lactation Education Consultants Mondays- NOVEMBER 4th, 2024 through DECEMBER 2nd, 2024 (this course will be one day per week for 5 weeks). This application is for a partial scholarship; applicants are responsible for securing payment for the remainder of the fee.

To be considered, please complete the following application and e-mail it to the scholarship committee at Northerninlca@gmail.com

If the scholarship is granted, attendees will be notified by email or phone no later than Friday September 20, 2024. If the awardee is not able to attend and complete the course for any reason, notification is expected so that the funds can be allocated to another applicant. For more information about the Certified Lactation Specialist Course, visit lactationeducation.com/clsc

Deadline for applications to be accepted is MONDAY SEPTEMBER 9, 2024

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out via email.
